

A conversation with Bernard Williams, a refugee from Sierra Leone 23 May 2010

Selected photos to accompany talk by Bernard Williams (follow across, then down):

Bernard's father's grave (died 2009)

Sierra Leone, Western Africa

Ferry from Freetown to airport

One of Bernard's friends

Pilgrim Uniting Church

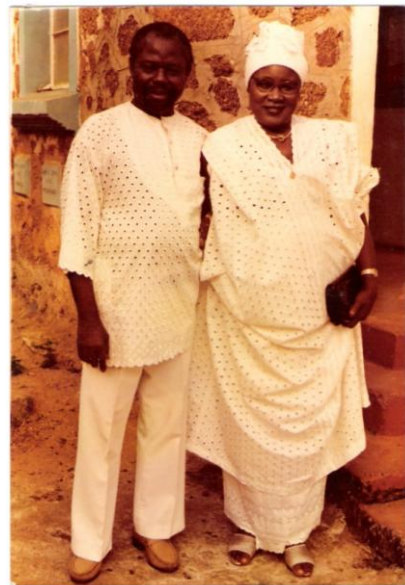

Bernard

War-affected part of Sierra Leone

Bernard's father, older brother and Bernard

Bernard's mother and father

Pilgrim Uniting Church

Friends in Ghana

In the cemetery

Bernard's childhood street in Freetown

Symbolic tree in Freetown

Children in Bernard's mother's house

Bernard's mother

Boy being supported by Bernard

Boy who used to live with Bernard's parents

Family in Ghana

Town in Ghana

Bernard's former school, in Sierra Leone

Big tree in heart of Freetown

If you wish to contact Rev Tony Duncan about this talk, email him at pilgrim.tony@tassie.net.au